FINANCE.Cl. 123.—Royal Warrant—Regimental Exchanges.(Issued as a Special Army Circular, on the 9th August, 1875.)VICTORIA R.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the 38th year of our reign, chapter intitled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Regimental Exchanges," it is enacted that nothing contained in the Army Brokerage Acts shall extend to any exchange between officers of our Regular Forces, made in the manner authorized by any regulations laid down by us for the time being in force;

Our will and pleasure is that so much of Article 18 of our Warrant of the 10th October, 1871, as relates to the period within which an officer shall be permitted to retire after the date of his exchange, and also Article 19 of our said Warrant, be cancelled, and that officers of our Regular Forces shall be permitted to exchange from one regiment or corps to another regiment or corps, under such conditions and regulations as have already been, or may hereafter from time to time be approved by us.

Given at our Court at Osborne, this 6th day of August, 1875, in the 39th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

GATHORNE HARDY.Cl. 124.—Royal Warrant—Medals and Gratuities for Long Service and Good Conduct.*VICTORIA R.

Whereas we deem it expedient to revise the regulations which at present govern the issue of medals and gratuities for long service and good conduct awarded to non-commissioned officers and soldiers of our Army on discharge, our will and pleasure is that Articles 896 to 910 of our Warrant of 27th December, 1870, be cancelled, and that the following regulations be substituted in lieu thereof:

1. A silver medal, having on one side the words "For Long Service and Good Conduct," and on the other side our Royal Arms, with the name and rank of the soldier, shall be presented in our name by the commanding officer on parade, to each soldier awarded a gratuity, and shall be worn by him as an honourable testimonial of our approbation of his conduct.
2. A gratuity, the amount of which shall be fixed by our Secretary of State for War, from time to time, but not exceeding five pounds in amount, shall be granted, on the recommendation of our Commander-in-Chief, in addition to ordinary pension on discharge, to non-commissioned officers on the staff of our Army, to non-commissioned officers and men of European regiments, and to European non-commissioned officers of black regiments, who shall have served in our Army for eighteen years with an irreproachable character, and either shall not have been convicted by a court-martial during that period, or shall have been relieved from the consequences of such conviction under the circumstances specified in Article 5.
3. A gratuity, the amount of which shall be fixed by our Secretary of State for War, from time to time, but not exceeding three pounds in amount, shall be granted, on the same conditions, in addition to ordinary pension on discharge, to non-commissioned officers, not being Europeans, and men of black regiments.
4. Non-commissioned officers and men who may have distinguished themselves by the display of zeal and brilliant gallantry in our Service, shall be eligible for these gratuities, although their cases do not strictly fulfil the conditions specified in Article 2.
5. A non-commissioned officer convicted by court-martial and reduced to the ranks for any other offence than those specified in the 81st and 168th Articles of War (1875) shall be relieved of the consequences of such conviction as affecting his claim to be recommended by our Commander-in-Chief for the gratuity and medal after a probation of five years' continuous good conduct from the date of reduction.
6. An Army schoolmaster shall not be entitled to the gratuity, but he shall be entitled to the Medal for long service and good conduct.
7. If the soldier to whom such gratuity is awarded be still serving in our Army, such gratuity shall, with the sanction of our Secretary of State, be deposited in the permanent savings bank. It shall there accumulate at interest until the discharge of the soldier entitled thereto, but it shall be subject to forfeiture by desertion or on the sentence of a general, garrison, or district court-martial, or by a conviction for any crime in a court of criminal judicature. The gratuity, with all accumulations, shall be paid to the soldier entitled thereto upon his discharge, or (if he shall die prior thereto) to his legal representatives. If the soldier to whom such gratuity is awarded shall not still be serving, it shall be issued to him at once by our Secretary of State.
8. Our Commander-in-Chief will notify to our Secretary of State the names of the soldiers to whom these gratuities and medals shall be awarded, in order that he may sanction the investment of the amount of the gratuity in the regimental savings banks, and our Secretary of State, upon receiving notice of the approaching discharge of a soldier with such gratuity and medal will, when practicable, notify to the parish to which he belongs the honourable distinction which has been conferred upon him.
9. A soldier in possession of a medal and gratuity for long service and good conduct who shall receive a commission or be awarded an annuity under Article 892 of our Warrant of 27th December, 1870, shall, in the former case, surrender the gratuity only, and in the latter both the medal and the gratuity; but he shall be entitled to receive the accumulated interest thereof up to the end of the month preceding that in which he received his commission or his annuity.
10. In the case of a gratuity relinquished under the provisions of Article 9, or forfeited under the provisions of Article 7, some other deserving soldier or soldiers of the same corps, serving in the year in which the medal and gratuity were originally awarded, and who, having fulfilled the required conditions as to service and character in that year, have since been discharged, may be recommended by our Commander-in-Chief for a medal and gratuity.
11. Non-commissioned officers and drummers on the permanent staff of the Militia and Yeomanny, and sergeant instructors of Volunteers, who were eligible previously to their discharge from our Army for the medal with gratuity, shall, after a period of twelve months' in any of the above-mentioned services, be eligible at any time during their remaining service therein, for medals with gratuities. Staff sergeants and quartermaster sergeants of pension districts, staff sergeants of recruiting districts, and clerks, barrack sergeants, and other pensioners employed under military control, or equally responsible appointments, shall, if otherwise qualified, be also eligible for medals with gratuities after twelve months' service in such appointments respectively, on the recommendation of their immediate military superior, to our Commander-in-Chief.

12. A gratuity for distinguished service in the field, which may have been forfeited by desertion, may be restored, but without interest, to the soldier on his being pardoned, and allowed to wear the medal which accompanied the gratuity.

Given at our Court at Osborne, this 14th day of August, 1878, in the 39th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

GATHORNE HARDY.

CL. 125.—Sick Leave of Departmental Officers.

1. When a departmental officer is sick at his station, whether in hospital or in quarters, his absence from duty on account of sickness will be recorded in the book upon which his pay and allowances are drawn, but no loss of pay or allowances will be entailed by such absence, if duly certified by a medical officer, and if not exceeding one month in duration. This absence on account of sickness need not be included in the period of leave with pay allowed by Articles 442 and 448 of the Royal Warrant of 27th December, 1870, if the general or other officer commanding at the station considers that the circumstances of the case warrant such a concession.

CONTROL SERVICES.

CL. 126.—Issue of Rations to Recruits and Recruiters.

The following instructions in regard to the supply of rations to non-commissioned officers and men employed on the recruiting service, as well as to recruits before joining their corps, will be strictly observed.

1. At stations where brigade depôts have been formed, rations in kind will be issued, and no money charges will be inserted in the pay lists without special authority being obtained.

2. At other stations 6d. a-day in lieu of rations may be charged in each case without special authority being obtained, on a certificate that the man on account of whom the charge is made was a recruit, or employed on the recruiting service, and that he was not provided with rations in kind.

3. Commanding officers may, however, at stations where a contract exists for the supply of bread and meat, apply to the War Office for authority for the supply of rations in kind, in lieu of the money allowance, should they be of opinion that such a course would be advantageous to the service.

CL. 127.—Arm-Chests for Martini-Henry Rifles.

1. Painted arm-chests with hinges and hasps suitable for the packing of Martini-Henry rifles will be issued, free of charge, out of the public stores.

2. The supply will be at the rate of one for each company, and the chests will be kept in repair by captains of companies. They will be brought on charge upon the company's ledger, and will be written off on the opposite side of the account in order that there may be a record of the issue.

3. No extra allowance will be made for the conveyance of these chests, beyond the sanctioned for each company under the existing regimental baggage scale.

4. Arm-chests will not be supplied to brigade depôts, the spare arms of each depot being kept in the armoury. Depôts will therefore, on joining their brigade depôts, return the arm-chests in their possession into store.

5. Clauses 21 and 60, Army Circulars, 1875, are hereby cancelled.

CL. 128.—Shell Practice of Garrison Batteries, Royal Artillery.

At the annual practice of batteries of Garrison Artillery, shell firing from 32- and 64-prs. will be carried on in accordance with the following directions:—

1. In places where firing live shell is permitted, the shells will be loaded and fired as for service.

2. In other places the shells will be loaded with blowing charges and properly fuzeed.

3. Paragraph 17 of Appendix to Clause 54, Army Circulars, 1878, will be amended accordingly.

Cl. 129.—Time Fuzes for 64- and 80-pr. R.M.L. Guns.

1. The following will be the proportion of wood time fuzes which will be maintained in store for the 64- and 80-pr. R.M.L. guns on land and sea fronts :—

5 seconds	{	One for each shrapnel shell and 10 per cent. spare ; and one-third of these will be of 5 seconds and the remainder of them of 9 seconds.
9 seconds
2. Twenty seconds wood time fuzes will not form any part of the proportions for these guns.

Cl. 130.—Charges for Clothing and Necessaries.

Cl. 131.—Volunteers from the Militia—Clothing.

1. In the event of the Militia clothing brought by Volunteers from the Militia being found to be in bad condition by the officers commanding the regiments or corps of the Regular Army to which the men have volunteered, it will be sold on the spot.
2. A return, showing the amount realized by the sale, and also where credit for the money will be found, will be furnished by the officer commanding the regiment or corps to the director of clothing.
3. Notification of the sale will also be made to the officer commanding the Militia regiment from which the man volunteered.

Cl. 132.—Stores, &c., for the Instruction of Troops in Field Works.

The following alterations will be made in the lists of tools and stores printed as an Appendix to Clause 105, Army Circulars, 1873.
The words "Model Spar Bridging Stores ($\frac{1}{4}$ th Size)" will be struck out of page 19 of the Appendix, and will be inserted at the top of page 20 above the words "TIMBER WARE."

G.O. 57.—Exchanges and Promotions.

(Specially issued 9th August, 1875.)

I. Under the provisions of the Royal Warrant of the 6th August, 1875, issued as a special Army Circular on the 9th instant, the following declarations, which are to be substituted for those contained in paragraph 3, section 4, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, of December, 1873," will, in future, be required to be signed by officers applying for exchange and on promotion.

DECLARATIONS ON APPLYING TO EXCHANGE.

For the Receiver.

I, A. B., hereby solemnly declare, on my honour, as an officer and a gentleman, that the proposed exchange with C. D. does not originate in any cause affecting my honour or my character or professional efficiency; that it is my bond fide intention to join immediately and do duty with the corps to which I propose to exchange for at least a period of twelve months; and I further declare that none of the officers belonging to my present regiment, or to the regiment to which I propose to exchange, except C. D. have paid or promised to pay any money or money's worth to me, or, to the best of my knowledge and belief, to any person on my behalf or in my interest, directly or indirectly, in consideration of the proposed exchange; and I promise honourably and unreservedly not to receive or in any manner recognise any such payment on account of such exchange, either now or hereafter.

For the Payer.

I, C. D., hereby solemnly declare, on my honour, as an officer and a gentleman, that the proposed exchange with A. B. does not originate in any cause affecting my honour or my character or professional efficiency; that it is my bond fide intention to join immediately, and do duty with the corps to which I propose to exchange for at least a period of twelve months; and I further declare that I have not received any money or money's worth, in consideration of such exchange, from any of the officers belonging to my present regiment, or to the regiment into which I propose to exchange, nor, to the best of my knowledge and belief, have any of such officers paid any money or money's worth on my behalf or in my interest, directly or indirectly, or in consideration of such exchange to A. B., or to anyone on his behalf.

DECLARATION ON PROMOTION.

I, A. B., hereby declare, on my honour, as an officer and a gentleman, that I have not, nor, to the best of my belief, has any person on my behalf or in my interest, directly or indirectly, paid or transferred, or agreed to pay or transfer, any sum of money, valuable security, or other thing, in respect of my promotion to the rank of , or, since 1st November, 1871, in respect of my steps in the regiment leading to such promotion; and I promise, honourably and unreservedly, not to make, cause to be made, or in any manner recognise hereafter, any such payment or transfer in respect of such promotion.

II. Paragraph 14, sect. 4 of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," is to be altered as follows:—

Exchanges between Battalions.

14. Applications for exchange from one battalion to another of the same regiment, are to be forwarded to the Adjutant-General, and recommended by both commanding officers. Such applications will be accompanied by a declaration from each officer—certified by commanding officers—to the effect—"that the exchange recommended does not originate in any cause affecting the honour or character or professional efficiency of the officers," and further, "that they do not intend to sell out or retire upon half pay after effecting such exchange, but that it is their bona fide intention to join immediately, and do duty with the battalion into which they exchange, the leave of absence which may have been granted to either or both being cancelled by such exchange." The certificate of a military medical officer will also be required in each case, to the effect "that the officer is in a fit state of health to serve at the station where the battalion into which he applies to exchange is quartered."

G.O. 58.—Embarkations—Loss of Naval Stores, &c.

In order to ensure a more equitable assessment of charges for damage or loss of articles issued to troops when embarked by detachments, or when troops of more than one corps are on board ship, and to prevent the heaviest charges being levied against the last corps or detachment to disembark, sub-division a of paragraph 103, section 17, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army (1873)," is hereby altered, and will now read as follows:—

103. The following rules are to be observed in accounting for deficiencies of naval stores, bedding, mess traps, &c., on board H. M. troop ships.

(a) Any loss or damage which cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, will be charged against and recovered from the troops at the time of disembarkation; and the paymaster of the ship is authorized to obtain from the officer in command of the troops immediate payment of the same. When the troops on board belong to more than one corps, the military officer in command will make each corps or detachment responsible for the articles issued to it; but should the articles not be marked especially for the use of each corps or detachment, then a pro rata charge may be levied against the whole of the troops on board, should the officer commanding consider such a course desirable, unless the loss or damage can be fixed upon any particular corps or detachment. If necessary, a muster of the whole of the naval stores in charge of the troops may be held, on the disembarkation of any portion of the troops on board.

The military officer superintending the disembarkation should ascertain that all charges for loss of stores are paid at once, and, in the event of an appeal being made against the amount by the troops, or any portion of them, the matter should be investigated before the ship sails, when every person who can give information on the subject is present.

G.O. 59.—Good Conduct Medals.

As the number of soldiers on whom good conduct medals and gratuities will, in future, be conferred, will under the provisions of the Royal Warrant of 14th August, 1873, be considerably larger than heretofore, commanding officers must always be careful that they are not thereby led to overlook the paramount necessity of limiting their recommendations to those who are known to be soldiers in every way worthy of the medal and its accompanying gratuity.

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief cannot too strongly impress on commanding officers how essential it is that every soldier who has gained this honourable recognition of his services should always feel it to be the reward of a long course of irreproachable conduct, and that they should bear in mind that the best way of perpetuating this sense of the value of the distinction, is to confer it only on those whose character is of the highest order.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 60.—Furloughs.

I. Winter furloughs for non-commissioned officers and men may commence, in future, on 15th October, it being distinctly understood, however, that should the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief be making a tour of inspection during the month of October, officers and men belonging to those corps His Royal Highness proposes to inspect, are not to be permitted to proceed on leave or furlough until His Royal Highness has visited the station.

II. Section 13, paragraph 30, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," will be amended accordingly.

By command,

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF having sanctioned Medals granted for acts of bravery in saving life being worn in Uniform, whenever a Society may consider any officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier entitled to receive a Medal, the decoration, together with a statement of the act of bravery performed, should be sent to the Adjutant General to the Forces, in order that the recipient's name may be registered, and the necessary authority issued for the distinction to be worn.

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. CONTROL SERVICES.

Cl. 141.—Hire of Mess Accommodation, and Allowance in Lieu.

1. When, in consequence of no room being available in barracks, it becomes necessary for officers temporarily to hire premises or make other suitable arrangements for a mess, the following allowances will be granted:—

For regiments	5l. 5s. a week, including the value of fuel and light.
For half battalions (not less than 4 companies)	2l. 12s. 6d. a week, including the value of fuel and light.
For detachments or batteries	1l. 11s. 6d. a week, including the value of fuel and light.

2. These allowances will only be issuable in the event of the claimants not being made members of any other regimental mess at their station.

3. All such allowances will be supported by the authority of the general officer commanding for the issue, by a certificate from the commissary that mess accommodation was not available, and by a certificate from the officer commanding that the officers concerned were not members of any other military mess at the station during the period claimed for.

4. In all cases in which repairs or alterations to regimental mess premises are recommended, the general officer commanding will take into consideration the collateral expenses, as well as the actual cost of the works proposed, and he will satisfy himself, before authorizing the issue of the above allowances, that it is not possible to make any local arrangement which would obviate the necessity of incurring such expenditure.

5. Clause 136, Army Circulars, 1872, and Clause 145, Army Circulars, 1874, are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 142.—Preservation of Electrical Instruments and Apparatus for Torpedo and other Services.

1. Whenever it is necessary to pack or repack the electrical instruments and other delicate apparatus used for torpedo and other services the operation will invariably be conducted in a dry room artificially heated. The instruments or apparatus to be packed will be kept in the artificially heated room for some time prior to being packed, and such portions of the metal work as it may be desirable so to protect will be coated with the special Rangoon oil used for protecting small arms from rust. The instruments will then be enveloped in brown paper which has been previously dried by artificial heat, and will be inserted in the tin-lined packing case prepared for their reception, which should be immediately closed. The packing case should be kept for some time in the same room as the instruments.

2. On receipt of such instruments or apparatus at a station, they will be at once removed from the cases and stored in a room which will be kept artificially heated, unless the atmosphere is dry and warm. If a room provided with permanent heating arrangements is not available, they will be stored in a dry room, which can from time to time, when necessary, be dried by artificial heat, by means of a charcoal stove or other convenient appliance.

3. The instruments or apparatus will be placed in charge of the Control Department at each station at home and abroad, and will be frequently inspected by an officer of that department, who will be held responsible for their being maintained in a serviceable state, and for the metal work being kept clean and constantly oiled, as provided for in paragraph 1.

4. Clause 131, Army Circulars, 1874, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 143.—Regulations for the Inspection of Rifled Guns.

1. Revised regulations for the inspection on service of rifled guns have been approved, and will be issued to officers and others concerned.

2. Clause 98, Army Circulars, 1875, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 144.—Instructions for using Trigger Testers with Martini-Henry Rifles.

1. The pull-off of military small arms is regulated so as to require a mean weight of about 7 lbs. to be applied to the finger-piece of the trigger, in order to release the sear.

nose from the bent; this result is obtained only when the action and trigger are perfectly clean and free from dried-up oil, or other matter causing obstruction to the free working of the various parts. In order therefore to obtain trustworthy indications of the weight of the pull-off, the armourer serjeant will thoroughly examine the actions of the arms which are to be tested, and clean and oil such as he finds require to be so treated, especial attention being given to the shoulder of the trigger and under side of the guard-plate.

2. As a rule the pull-off of the small arms in use will be found to be influenced mainly by the condition of cleanliness of the action and trigger.

3. Should the action after having been thoroughly cleaned and oiled, be found to pull off either light or heavy—i.e., below 6 lbs. or above 8 lbs., it may easily be regulated by squaring the scar nose and bent in the tumbler rest, care being taken to preserve the same angles. Great care should be used in performing this operation.

4. In weighing the pull-off, the trigger tester should be kept in line with the barrel, about two inches below the strap of the butt-plate, or nearly in the centre of, and clear of the stock.

G.O. 64.—H.M. Indian Troop Ships.

I. In consequence of its having been decided to discontinue the contract for the supply in Egypt of fresh beef and vegetables for the use of troops embarked in H.M. Indian troop ships, arrangements have been made for the shipment of live oxen at Malta and Bombay, and the following modifications will be made in the authorized scale of rations as far as concerns troops embarked in those vessels.

II. On leaving Malta on the outward and Bombay on the homeward voyages, fresh meat and vegetables sufficient for at least one day's consumption will be taken on board,—together with oxen, which will produce meat for two days' rations, and such additional vegetables as may be likely to keep good; the oxen to be killed on about the 5th and 14th days after leaving, or at such times as may in the opinion of the senior military medical officer (with the approval of the captain of the troop ship obtained through the military commanding officer) be best; and the fresh vegetables are to be issued either on fresh meat, salt meat, or preserved meat days, as may be desirable. Further supplies of vegetables will also be taken on board on the ships passing through Egypt.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 65.—Non-Commissioned Officers for Auxiliary Forces.

1. Whenever non-commissioned officers of Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry of the Regular Forces at home, who have served for 14 years and upwards in the Army, wish to be transferred to the permanent staff of the Militia or Yeomanry Cavalry Forces, and whenever those who have served 17 years and upwards, desire to be transferred to the Volunteer Force, they will send in their names in the usual manner to the officers commanding their respective batteries, depôts or regiments.

2. These officers will, on the first of every month, send a list of the men willing to be so transferred :—

- a. In the case of Cavalry, to the inspecting officer of Auxiliary Cavalry in the Cavalry district.
- b. In that of the Royal Artillery, to the officer commanding the Auxiliary Artillery in the Artillery sub-district (through the officer commanding the Royal Artillery in the district).
- c. In that of Infantry, to the officer commanding the brigade depôt in the sub-district.

3. On the first occasion on which a non-commissioned officer's name is included in one of the periodical lists, a descriptive return and a certified copy of his regimental record of service will be annexed to the list, accompanied by a covering minute, giving the commanding officer's opinion as to the character of the man, his suitability for work with the Auxiliary Forces, and his capability of efficiently performing the duties of drill instructor. It will also be stated whether the non-commissioned officer has obtained a certificate as a qualified armourer at the Royal Small Arms Establishment, at Birmingham, and whether he holds a certificate of qualification as a sergeant instructor in gunnery or musketry, from the School of Gunnery or Musketry, as the case may be. It should further be stated whether the non-commissioned officer has any special wish to be transferred to any particular corps, or to go to any particular county or counties.

4. A duplicate list will, at the same time, be sent direct to the Inspector General of the Auxiliary Forces, accompanied, in the case of a non-commissioned officer included for the first time in such a list, by a duplicate of the descriptive return, which should contain a statement as to any particular corps or county or counties which the non-commissioned officer may specially wish to join.

5. Serjeants only will be transferred to the Militia, and, as a rule, no non-commissioned officer will be transferred from the Army to the permanent staff of the Militia or Yeomanry Cavalry Forces until he shall have completed 15 years' service, nor to the Volunteer Force until he shall have completed 18 years' service.

6. When a non-commissioned officer who has been recommended for the permanent staff of the Auxiliary Forces becomes non-effective, or in any way ceases to be a candidate, a report accordingly is to be made to the Inspector General of the Auxiliary Forces, and to the officer to whom the application was forwarded, under paragraph 2, in order that his name may be removed from the list of candidates.

7. The regulations in regard to non-commissioned officers transferred in accordance with the foregoing instructions are contained in the Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circulars, copies of which are issued to general officers commanding, and to regiments and brigade depôts on home stations.

8. G.O. 9 of 1875, is hereby cancelled.

By command,

RICHARD AIREY, Adj. Gen.
